Sun, Jan 13, 2019, 11 AM – 2 PM, RSVP Here

Santa Teresa Library, 290 International Circle,
Community Room, San Jose, CA 95119

Peace Ambassadors help to keep marches and demonstrations peaceful and safe. We're looking for friendly, diplomatic types who can respond calmly in tense situations. This session teaches the CLARA technique for nonviolent engagement, de-escalation skills, and other practical tools, and includes role-play. Upon completion, those who wish to serve will be provided further instructions and opportunities to sign-up to serve at Women's March on Jan. 19. Gandhian Nonviolence Workshop: Be the Change

Sun, Jan 6, 2019, 3 PM – 6 PM, RSVP Here

Sun, Jan 13, 2019, 3 PM – 6 PM, RSVP Here

Billy DeFrank LGBTQ+ Community Center,
938 The Alameda, San Jose, CA 95126

How do we address the socio-political challenges of our times and transform a hurting world? What power do you have to affect that change? Neither passivity nor violence will work. Active nonviolence is the third way; the means of both social and personal transformation. This session explores the success of nonviolent resistance to injustice and oppression and focuses on the nonviolent life through the example of Mahatma Gandhi. Presented by The Gandhi Team.
